

Prep for the NEW GMAT or GRE with the Anderson School at UNM

SUMMER 2012 CLASSES

With more hands-on, in-class hours than any other program in New Mexico, the Anderson School's GMAT & GRE prep programs give students an intensive, effective prep experience, taught by our own masters-level testing experts.

Participants spend over 40 hours in classroom instruction, take four full-length computer-adaptive practice tests, and have access to additional tests and drills for further study. During the course, instructors focus on the core math and verbal skills required to succeed PLUS the test-taking techniques taught by the best programs from across the country.

THE IDEAL COURSE

The Anderson School's accelerated 5-week test programs are designed to give applicants an intensive, effective prep experience, taught by our own testing experts!

Course materials are drawn from the very best books and software and are personally selected by our master tutors. When you've completed this course, you'll be prepared to sit for the test!

THE INSTRUCTORS

Our tutors are specialists! Students are matched with appropriate instructors (math and verbal) based on their experience and skill level. Our tutors are all Masters-level instructors and are trained in the very best test-taking techniques.

None of the program is taught by video or online - our instruction is 100% live! Free tutoring is available before each class session and students are welcome to retake the program as many times as they'd like. Looking for more info? Feel free to email one of our tutors at testprep@unm.edu or call 710-9325.

THE PROGRAM DETAILS

PRACTICE TESTS

Prior to the start of the program, you will take a full-length computer-adaptive pre-test*. Using the results of that exam and three subsequent full-length practice tests, our tutors customize each class session to maximize your results. Additional tests and quizzes are provided for your use between the end of the program and your exam date.

MATH REFRESHER

Are your math skills a little rusty? We've got you covered! We kick off our program with our exclusive five-hour math refresher class, which covers all the math basics required for the exam.

*Students can take the pre-test any time between registration and the Math Refresher.

FREE 3-Hour GRE & GMAT Preview Classes

Not sure which test to take?

Join us for a FREE 3-hour GRE & GMAT class.
