NEW MEXICO BUSINESS LIVES HERE.
Welcome to the Robert O. Anderson School of Management, accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International (AACSB).

At the Anderson School, we want you to reach your career goals. We know that working professionals and non-traditional students need flexibility to succeed in a graduate program, so we have designed our flexible MBA to meet those needs.

With courses offered at 4:00pm and later and many offered online or web enhanced, the MBA program is accessible and diverse for all students. The Anderson Student Services Center that houses Advising, the Career Services Office, and the Graduate Programs Office also holds early evening office hours to accommodate your needs.

Based in the diverse Albuquerque, New Mexico, the Anderson School is centrally located in the most populated city of the state, offering our students access to integration with the local economy. In the new 61,000 square foot signature building, the McKinnon Center for Management, we provide an engaging learning environment featuring state-of-the-art IT, promoting interaction amongst students, faculty and staff fostering the most valuable education experience possible. Through numerous experiential learning opportunities, students gain experience in areas like the global economy, consulting, portfolio management, public policy, human behavior and technology development.

Explore your future career opportunities by specializing in one of our 11 concentrations and attending the 100 career events that the Anderson School hosts annually. By engaging with the community and the 20,000 alumni that are located worldwide, you have the opportunity and the network to reach your goals.

Anderson is dedicated to providing opportunities for students through competitions, conference funding, student organizations, and collaborative projects with local companies. This experiential learning integration builds strong bonds in the Albuquerque community.

Well-Connected Alumni
With more than 20,000 alumni worldwide and strong ties in the Albuquerque area, there are many opportunities for students to connect. Anderson alumni return frequently to hire for internships and jobs, participate in mock interviews, and network at events.

“The immense diversity in my classrooms and the high value placed on international engagement by my professors has given me a clear vision of where I see my career headed. Earning my MBA from Anderson has served as a catalyst in my pursuit of a career where humanitarianism is at the forefront.”

- CASEY MURPHY, MBA, MARKETING
CLASS OF 2019
World-Class Faculty will provide you with a dynamic, educational environment that elevates your leadership skills and translates knowledge into empowerment through outcome-focused, team-based, and practical approaches to current business issues.

Experiential Learning is integrated in every course, including case competitions, consulting projects, global experiences, and student organizations. Faculty-led trips to China, Mexico, Italy and more provide real-world knowledge in the global economy.

Alumni Connections bring strong ties to community projects and employment opportunities directly to students and graduates. With over 100 career-related events at Anderson, students and alumni network together and build long-lasting relationships.

Entrepreneurial Drive is something innate at Anderson. Students get their ideas off the ground with help from Albuquerque business leaders in the Innovation Center and through the annual Business Plan Competition which includes cash prizes for their start-ups.
ANDERSON FACULTY

Anderson provides the opportunity for students to work with faculty on management research. The Behavioral Research Lab, Marketing Lab, and access to resources like the Bloomberg Terminal give students real-world experience that helps shape the Albuquerque economy.

“I try to incorporate class discussion that relates to their personal experiences and provide hands on learning activities as much as I can. I like to include working with local and national brands each semester, such as Deschutes Brewery, Kolache Factory, Twisters, and NM Look.”

- BRIAN GILLESPIE, PHD
PROFESSOR OF MARKETING

UNM Anderson’s faculty has a wide range of experience and expertise. Areas of expertise include:

Accounting
Entrepreneurial Studies
Finance
Human Resource Management
Information Assurance
International Management

Management Information Systems
Management of Technology
Marketing
Operations
Organizational Leadership
Strategic Management Policy

“We are one of few business schools that actively addresses the growing need for sustainable, strategic solutions, not just short term fixes. Students get both theoretically sound training, as well as experience with real businesses in the community.”

-KAREN PATTERSON, PHD
PROFESSOR OF STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT
Develop your brand and embrace a career with passion. The Anderson School’s Career Services Office offers you connections to over 200 employers that commonly recruit our MBA students, including healthcare, government and technology industries.
“After graduating from Anderson with my bachelor’s degree, my next stop was an internship with Southwest Airlines. And interns can fly for free! I flew 15,000 miles that summer. My Southwest internship, in addition to my MBA in Management Information Systems helped me land my dream job working at Microsoft.”

- MATT GARTON, MBA, MIS

CLASS OF 2014
On the Anderson campus are a collaborative group of people with the same drive and interest. Students returning to the classroom, military veterans, strong women, and our local Native American and Latino communities add to the vision and diversity that thrive at Anderson.
The Anderson MBA curriculum has two tracks, the 37 credit-hour Accelerated and the 43 credit-hour Focused, giving flexibility to students who want to navigate quickly through the curriculum.
